The cards I use to travel for free

CARD 01

Amex Cobalt

The best card for everyday spending in Canada. Food, coffee, groceries and streaming all earn points you can turn into flights.

MONTHLY FEE $15.99	PER YEAR $191.88	WELCOME OFFER See my link
--------------------------------------	------------------------------------	--

WHAT YOU BUY	POINTS PER $1
Food and drinks: restaurants, bars, cafes, groceries, delivery	5x
Streaming: Netflix, Spotify and more	3x
Gas, transit and rideshare	2x
Everything else	1x

Bonus points only count on purchases made in Canada. Buying abroad earns 1x.

WHY I LOVE IT

- Every meal, coffee and grocery run builds toward your next flight
- Move your points to Aeroplan, Marriott Bonvoy and other partners
- Amex points are the most flexible travel points in Canada
- Heads up: it charges a 2.5% fee on foreign purchases, so use a no-foreign-fee card when you travel

BEST WAYS TO USE YOUR POINTS

- Move them to Aeroplan for flights. This is the best value.
- Move them to Marriott Bonvoy for hotel stays
- Book travel through the Amex Fixed Points Travel program
- Skip statement credits. They give you the least value.

PRO TIP

Use the Cobalt for everything you buy in Canada. When you travel, switch to a no-foreign-fee card like Wealthsimple or Scotiabank. That two-card combo is the base of a smart setup.

- Bring a buddy and it doubles to $900 to $1,300 USD
- Free food, drinks, showers and Wi-Fi every time you fly

TRAVEL INSURANCE MOST PEOPLE FORGET THEY HAVE

- Trip cancellation and trip interruption
- Emergency medical while you travel
- Flight delay: get paid back for meals and a hotel
- Delayed or lost bags
- Rental car damage and theft. Skip the counter insurance.

EXTRA PERKS

- $200 travel credit every year
- $200 dining credit every year at top Canadian restaurants
- Amex Offers, like money back at stores you already shop at
- Free Marriott Bonvoy Gold and Hilton Honors Gold status
- $100 credit toward a NEXUS membership
